Foreword

*A*S you commence to turn the pages of this book you oft' times stop to ponder certain happenings that to you seem pre-eminent. The past year is slowly brought back to you and with each new picture comes a new recollection of the previous year.

But as you deliberate the past you also hesitate and think of the future. What do the future years hold for you?

The Corridor Staff hopes that each reader will enjoy reading this book and that it will contain something to remember for everyone.

We also wish to express our thanks to Mr. Gregory Benson, general advisor, Miss Loeta Ayrault, art advisor, Mr. Kendall Johnson, literary advisor, and all others who have helped the students in the work and preparing of the Corridor.

We hope you will find the Corridor of 1952 enjoyable.

LYLE MATTESON

THIS year the Corridor Staff is proud to dedicate its work to Mr. Lyle Matteson, a worthwhile teacher and a trusting friend.

In teaching Mr. Matteson has won the approval of the student body. His easy way and friendly smile guarantee that all are his friends.

He has shown that sometimes a problem is not as difficult as it may seem, and he always does his part to make it seem that much easier.

Mr. Matteson takes charge of Junior High math class, is the Hi-Y advisor, and always shows his willingness to help by chaperoning at school affairs.

All of these items prove that Mr. Matteson is a wonderful person, and this is why the Corridor Staff feels the Corridor of 1952 should be dedicated to Mr. Lyle Matteson.

BOARD OF

THE school board stands ready at all times to render its services. It appropriates money for the Corridor, Falcon, and other school projects. The members devote much time and effort to provide us with the proper educational opportunities. For these and other reasons the Corridor wishes to express its sincere appreciation to the Board of Education.

ADMINISTRATION

THE administration and faculty of Falconer High stands ever ready to serve the student body. Their job consists not only of teaching, but of giving personal guidance, acting as chaperons, and setting a good example to high school students.

At their fingertips must at all times be kept methods of proper discipline, impartiality, and with this they must possess a sense of humor and a liking for the students.

The fate of the student body rests upon their shoulders, for their superiority in carrying out all of these standards will make them the right kind of citizens for the future.

History

President - John Pickup

V-President - Carol Hendrickson

Secretary - Nancy Brattlof

Treasurer - Calvin Potwin

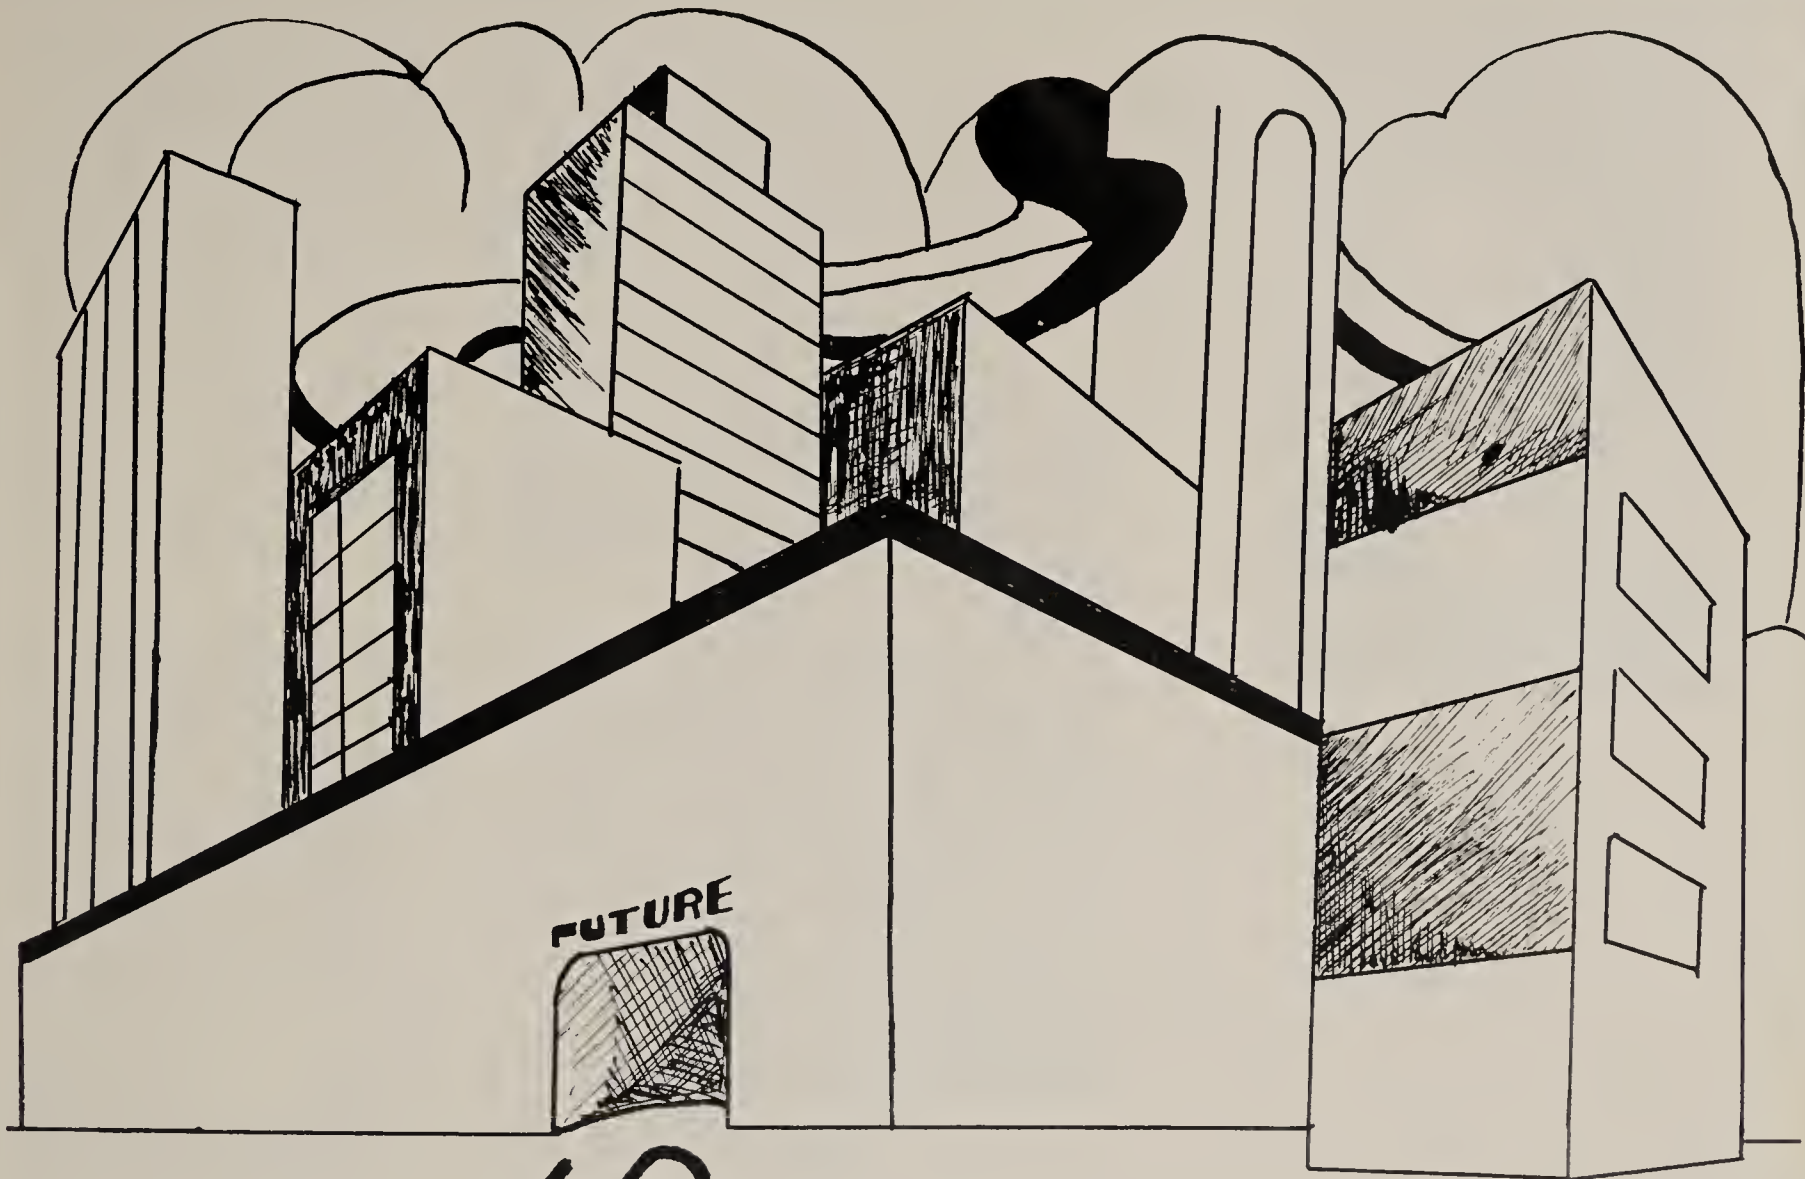

WE began our career as freshmen in High School with Jerry Fitzpatrick as President; Cal Potwin, as Vice-President; and Lois Ortendahl, as Secretary-Treasurer. Although this year was a rather inactive one for us, Mr. Matteson was a very helpful advisor.

With a few dropping along the way we proudly announced to the incoming freshmen that we were now sophomores. Mr. Schreiner was our advisor while class officers were Janet Fredrickson, President; Rosalie Giambrone, Vice President; Calvin Potwin, Secretary; and Beverly Price, Treasurer.

By this time we were known to our fellow students as juniors. By spring we even felt a little superior because we had received our class rings and were one step closer to becoming seniors. We began the year with Mrs. Andersen as advisor and elected Jim Schnars for President, Calvin Potwin for Vice-President, Bill Thomas for Secretary, and Loretta Lodestro as Treasurer. Each class member worked hard selling magazines, skating tickets and refreshments. These were our chief money making projects and enabled us to give the seniors their banquet and prom, which many of us attended.

At last we have earned the title of seniors. The first big thrill of the year was the receiving of our name cards. We really felt just as lost as we did when we were freshmen. Then came the big decision of the year and the one big event of the senior year--the Senior Play "Our Miss Brooks." The week after the play some of us went on the senior trip to New York. Mr. and Mrs. Andersen and Mr. and Mrs. von Reyn went along as chaperons.

This year has held many joys for all of us and will always remain a cherished memory in our hearts.

Student Council

STUDENT COUNCIL is the law making body of Falconer Central High School. Permission has to be granted by this body before any school organization holds a social activity or a money making project. Each homeroom elects a representative, thus all laws that are passed have the full backing and consideration of the student body.

HONOR SOCIETY

THE Honor Society is a chapter of the honorary national organization, Theta XI Gamma. A committee of the faculty chooses, each year, a number of students to become members. These members are chosen for their leadership, scholarship, character, and service. With membership in the Honor Society, a student gains special privileges denied the rest of the student body.

THE School Police Force is the law enforcing body of the school. Each member of the School Police has the power to arrest a student by giving him a ticket for misconduct, either during school hours or at a sports event. It is their duty to keep the student body out of mischief.

Staff Club

THIS year a new music club was formed, the Staff Club. This club is an honorary music organization consisting of students who belong to two or more musical groups and have attended the Fredonia Music Festival for at least one year.

The purpose of the club is to promote a better understanding of the music departments and their problems. It also enables members to further indulge their musical interests.

The Music Department of Falconer Central consists of Orchestra and Band which compose the Instrumental Groups. Glee Club, Choir, Junior Choir and Boys' Choir make up the Vocal Department.

The Vocal Department appears several times during the year at concerts, Christmas Vesper Service and special programs, under the direction of Mrs. Elizabeth Andersen.

The Instrumental Groups are directed by Mr. Walton Huestis and under his guidance the musical groups present entertaining programs throughout the year.
